NOTE.—The unassigned clerks are employed, under the direction of the Chief Clerk, on the general work of the Department. It is understood, however, that notwithstanding the above distribution, the Chief Clerk may require the clerks of one Bureau to do the work belonging to any other Bureau when the convenience of the Department requires it.

V.—RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE, January 3, 1871.

I. The office hours of the Department are from 9:30 a. m., at which hour gentlemen are expected to be at their desks, to 4 p. m.; and until such later hour as the exigency of the public business shall demand. A satisfactory explanation will be required for all absences between these hours. It is expected that the reading of newspapers in the Department will be dispensed with during business hours. Clerks and employes are not permitted to visit each other or to receive visits during business hours. Clerks or others in the Department are not to give information of any of the business or correspondence of the Department, or any information or advice as to any vacancies to be filled or that may be likely to occur, or as to appointments to be made. No smoking will be allowed in any parts of the building that are free to the public.

II. The chief of each Bureau is responsible for the observance of these rules by the clerks and employes under him, as well as for the condition of the archives, correspondence, and records in his charge. If at any time his force is insufficient for the work assigned to him, or if any gentleman in his Bureau fails to comply with these regulations, or to satisfactorily discharge his duties, he will report to the chief clerk in writing, whose duty it will be to transmit the report without delay to the Secretary.

III. Monthly reports on the first day of each month will be made by each head of a Bureau (except the Bureau of Accounts) to the chief clerk, of the condition of his Bureau, showing the amount of the correspondence of the previous month, the number of pages yet to be recorded or compared, and the number of papers yet to be indexed. These reports should be in tabular form, and uniform in form and size, and should be transmitted to the Secretary by the chief clerk with a like report as to general work in the Department not embraced in the general Bureaus, and with a tabulated abstract of the several reports, the whole to be attached together, folded, and indorsed: "Monthly report, ———, 1871."

IV. The head of the Bureau of Accounts will, on the tenth day of each month, make a report to the Secretary showing the exact condition of each appropriation and account on the first day of the month; and as to each appropriation an account stating— 1. The amount appropriated. 2. Reference to statute making appropriation. 3. Amount of appropriation in the statute. 4. Amount of appropriation remaining in Treasury. 5. Amount drawn during the month. 6. Amount remaining unexpended. 7. Amount expended during the month. 8. Amount in the hands of disbursing clerk. 9. Where amount in the hands of clerk is deposited. Also with respect to trust funds or other moneys in his possession—1. Statement of trust and other funds (not appropriations) in the custody of the clerk. 2. Date when received. 3. Origin of fund. 4. Original amount. 5. Amount of interest, and when received. 6. Present amount of fund. 7. Nature of investments, and where deposited. 8. Amount in the hands of disbursing clerk. 9. Where amount in the hands of clerk is deposited. In all cases the total of balances in hand to be footed up.

V. Reports and abstracts prepared for the use of the Secretary, or either of the Assistant Secretaries, should be made on blanks prepared for the purpose, and should concisely and fully present the facts, issues, and points of argument, and generally all information necessary to the complete understanding of the subject, with all necessary references. The labor of reviewing the correspondence should not devolve upon either of the Secretaries, but must be performed by the clerk who may be directed to make the report or abstract.

VI. The pouches containing the mail shall be opened immediately upon their arrival in the Department, and the official mail delivered without delay to the index clerks for entry and distribution. All papers sent out by the Secretary, or either of the Assistant Secretaries, will be at once taken to the index room for indexing or distribution. All correspondence requiring the signature of the Secretary, or the Assistant Secretaries, must be prepared and delivered to the Chief Clerk by 2½ o'clock, and by him delivered for signature at 3 o'clock.

VII. All dispatches and correspondence, both to and from the Department, not of a personal character, will pass to the Secretary's table through the room of the proper Assistant Secretary. In returning letters and instructions sent to the Secretary for signature, an opportunity will be given to each Assistant Secretary to see the correspondence which has not been submitted to his inspection.

VIII. The index room shall be the depository for the archives, the dispatches, notes, and letters to the Department, except those relating to passports, and to applications for office, and for the records of the official and other correspondence from the Department. Dispatches and letters received must be acknowledged at the earliest practicable moment after their receipt in the various Bureaus and returned to the index room, to await final reply, if further answer is necessary.

IX. Detention of papers, either on desks or shelves of any of the various Bureaus, excepting draughts of instructions, is prohibited, without special approval of the Assistant Secretary who has charge of the Bureau. All communications should bear inclosurement of the dates of the action of the Department. On all copies of papers addressed to the Department should be noted the date of their receipt.

X. Clerks finding it necessary to withdraw papers or records from the index room, shall leave in the place thereof a signed memorandum, describing the book or paper. When the course of business may require the reference of a paper from one Bureau to another, a memorandum, showing the date of such reference, should be made and deposited in the index room by the clerk making the reference.

XI. It is desirable to keep the index room free during office hours, so far as possible; therefore clerks wishing papers will send for the same through messengers, when practicable; and all requisitions from the Secretary or Assistant Secretaries, for papers, will be referred to the index clerks.

XII. All instructions, notes, or letters from the Department, containing inclosures, will be accompanied by a "list of inclosures," showing from whom received, and to whom addressed, (or their general subjects, if not particularly addressed,) and their date. This list will in all cases be recorded with the dispatch, with a marginal reference to the book or file in the Department where the inclosure can be found. A single inclosure must be noted in the same manner. The clerks will also insert in the record books such marginal references as to the inclosures in the correspondence since 12th March, 1869.

XI.—CONSULAR SERVICE OF THE UNITED STATES.

The statutes of the United States classify the consulates-general, consulates, and commercial agencies into three classes: 1. Those embraced in a schedule known as Schedule B, the incumbents of which receive a fixed salary and are not allowed to transact business, 2. Those embraced in a schedule known as Schedule C, the incumbents of which receive a fixed salary and are allowed to transact business, 3. All other consulates, the incumbents of which are compensated by the fees collected in their offices, and are allowed to transact business. The classification of the consulates named in the schedules is as follows:

ARGENTINE REPUBLIC—BARBARY.

[The following table exhibits all the Consulates-General, Consulates, Consular Agencies, and Commercial Agencies of the United States. The agencies under each consulate are printed in italics.]

The compensation of salaried Consuls is limited to the amount of the salary, out of which the officer must defray the expenses of clerk-hire; but Consuls whose salaries do not exceed $1,500, and from whose Consulates without the agencies fees are paid into the Treasury to the amount of $3,000 a year, shall be compensated at $2,000 a year.

The compensation of the fee Consuls is limited to $2,500, if the fees exceed that sum; such Consuls can pay their clerks from the fees received at the consulate, when thereto specially authorized, but not otherwise.

The column of fees shows the amount of fees received at each consulate and agency from which returns have been made for the year ending September 30, 1870.

It is the usual practice for the agent to retain one-half the fees of the agency until the sum retained by him amounts to $1,000. This rule is not universal. The Consul is entitled to retain $1,000 a year in the aggregate from the agencies under his consulate.

The amount of fees is as reported from the Fifth Auditor's office of the Treasury Department.

The letters (C, G) indicate Consul General; (C) Consul; (V, C) Vice-Consul; (C, A) Commercial Agent; (D, C) Deputy Consul; (Agt.) Agent; (Int.) Interpreter; (Mar.) Marshal; (C, C) Consular Clerk.

The letter (a) indicates that the officer is a naturalized citizen, and the letter (b) that he is authorized to transact business.]

XVI.—REGULATIONS CONCERNING THE PRECEDENCE OF DIPLOMATIC AGENTS.

The rules on this subject, which have been prescribed by the Department, are the same as those contained in act 17 of the congress of Vienna, of June 9, 1815, as follows:

In order to prevent the inconveniences which have frequently occurred, and which might again arise, from claims of precedence among different diplomatic agents, the plenipotentiaries of the powers who signed the treaty of Paris have agreed on the following articles, and they think it their duty to invite the plenipotentiaries of other crowned heads to adopt the same regulation:

ARTICLE I. Diplomatic agents are divided into three classes: that of ambassadors, legates, or nuncios; that of envoys, ministers, or other persons accredited to sovereigns; that of chargés d'affaires accredited to ministers for foreign affairs.

ART. II. Ambassadors, legates, or nuncios only have the representative character.

ART. III. Diplomatic agents on an extraordinary mission have not, on that account, any superiority of rank.

ART. IV. Diplomatic agents shall take precedence in their respective classes, according to the date of the official notification of their arrival. The present regulation shall not cause any innovation with regard to the representatives of the Pope.

ART. V. A uniform mode shall be determined in each state for the reception of diplomatic agents of each class.

ART. VI. Relations of consanguinity or of family alliance between courts confer no precedence on their diplomatic agents. The same rule also applies to political alliances.

ART. VII. In acts or treaties between several powers which grant alternate precedence, the order which is to be observed in the signatures shall be decided by lot between the ministers.

ART. VIII. It is agreed that ministers resident accredited to them shall form, with respect to their precedence, an intermediate class between ministers of the second class and chargés d'affaires.

BOSTON PUBLIC LIBRARY.

CENTRAL LIBRARY.

ABBREVIATED REGULATIONS.

One volume can be had at a time, in home use, from the Lower Hall, and one from the Bates Hall, and this volume must always be returned with the applicant's library card, within such hours as the rules prescribe. No book can be taken from the Lower Hall of this Library, while the applicant has one from any Branch.

Books can be kept out 14 days, but may be renewed within that time, by presenting a new slip with the card; after 14 days a fine of two cents for each day is incurred, and after 21 days the book will be sent for at the borrower's cost, who cannot take another book until all charges are paid.

No book is to be lent out of the household of the borrower; nor is it to be kept by transfers in one household more than one month, and it must remain in the Library one week before it can be again drawn in the same household.

The Library hours for the delivery and return of books are from 9 o'clock, A. M., to 8 o'clock, P. M., in the Lower Hall; and from 9 o'clock, A. M., until 6 o'clock, P. M., from October to March, and until 7 o'clock, from April to September, in the Bates Hall.

Borrowers finding this book mutilated or unwarrantably defaced, are expected to report it; and also any undue delay in the delivery of books.

* * * No claim can be established because of the failure of any Library notice to reach, through the mail, the person addressed.

[50,000, Nov., 1870.]
